

Sample note to send with your digital or written invitations

Just a reminder – your guests do NOT have to pay to attend the Gala. To eliminate any confusion, I encourage you to include a personal note with the invitations you send to your guests. For your convenience, a sample note is below.

Dear Austin and Carrie,

Christian and I are looking forward to attending Life Network's Annual Gala and Silent Auction on Thursday, October 1. We are sponsoring a table and would be honored to have you as our guests. Since we have underwritten a table, our guests attend free of charge. During the evening, there will be opportunities to learn more about this ministry, how to partner with Life Network financially, and more! We hope you can join us at this great event.

Please RSVP to me by September 7th.

Thanks!

Alyssa
